A cold wave stopped the Naps and Sox—but then it doesn't take much to stop either of them.

Pitcher Ferryman of Atlanta is quitting the diamond for the pulpit. Possibly Billy Sunday drafted him.

Connie Mack is being treated for a sore lip. Probably he bit it trying to keep from smiling when he thought of who would win the National pennant.

INDISPENSABLE

An egotist is a man who thinks if he hadn't been born people would have wanted to know why not.—Puck.

BOXER'S SISTER IS HIS TRAINER

Joe Azevedo and his twin sister, who is one of his most enthusiastic admirers. She is always present at his training camp and encourages him in his work. Joe has figured prominently in the short distance game on the Pacific Coast and recently stayed 18 rounds with Charley White of Chicago, who is touted as the most promising man in the lightweight division.
